OMT PDW News

Michael Lounsbury (University of Alberta) calls to your attention the Call for Proposals for the 2010 OMT Division.

In San Antonio, August 12-16, 2011, we would like to see PDW sessions creatively and innovatively addressing the Division’s Mission of attracting, developing and serving academics and practitioners who wish to advance understanding of organizations and organizing. We would particularly like to see submissions that address the conference theme of “West Meets East: Enlightening, Balancing, and Transcending.” In addition, we also encourage proposals that are of interest to members of other AOM divisions (e.g., ENT, BPS, MOC, etc.). PDW sessions have a very flexible structure but should have greater participant interaction than symposia in the regular program.

All submissions are to be submitted electronically at this site:

The deadline for submissions is January 11, 2011. This is the same date as regular scholarly submissions. Since we are interested in proposals that address the interests of a broad segment of Academy of Management members, we ask proposal submitters to note whether their PDW will be of interest to members of divisions other than OMT.

In your submission, you will be asked for the following information:

- The title of your session;
- Contact information for submitter and names and affiliations of all facilitators;
- A brief (2 page) outline of the proposed session, including a statement of planned activities, rationale for workshop, and the target audience;
- Ideal room setup and time frame; sessions are scheduled all day Friday and Saturday.
